

MoDOT Minute – Aug. 3, 2010

Hi. This is Sally Oxenhandler with your MoDOT Minute.

St. Louis attorney Kenneth H. Suelthaus was sworn in July 30 as the newest member of the Missouri Highways and Transportation Commission. Suelthaus, who was appointed to the post by Gov. Jay Nixon, took the commission oath from Supreme Court Judge Mary Russell in a ceremony at the Missouri Department of Transportation's central office building. Suelthaus replaces Duane Michie of Haiti whose term expired March 1, 2009.

How can you grow great memories this summer? Schedule a trip to the state fair on Amtrak's Missouri River Runner train. The fair runs Aug. 12-22 in Sedalia. The Amtrak train runs between St. Louis and Kansas City twice a day with stops in Lee's Summit, Independence, Warrensburg, Sedalia, Jefferson City, Hermann, Washington and Kirkwood. A bus will take fairgoers from the Amtrak station in Sedalia directly to the fair's main gates. For more information, visit www.amtrak.com.

That's been your MoDOT Minute. Remember to check back every Tuesday for new information.
